

JEANNINE KATHARINE ROSS-ARMSTRONG

June 23, 1974 - February 2, 2013

It is with deep sorrow and tremendous sadness in our hearts that the family of Jeannine Ross-Armstrong announce her passing. Beloved wife of Robin Armstrong, precious daughter of Tim and Kathy Ross, Jeannine will always be remembered for her amazing spirit, her genuine smile, and her infectious laugh.

Jeannine had a zest for life that was unmatched, and always made a special connection with everyone she met. Jeannine was a bright light in so many people's lives and had a beautiful spirit that touched everyone.

Jeannine always loved to create, loved making jewelry, and loved spending countless hours in her shop, Robin at her side, making her wonderful rock bird and garden sculptures that would touch the lives of many people.

Jeannine was an amazing and smart businesswoman, and loved running the family business. She had a knack for making a connection with everyone who came into the yard, and many that entered as customers would leave as friends.

Jeannine was very adventurous, loved to travel, and through her life took the opportunity to explore many exotic places. During the summer and fall, she loved to jump into her famous 'camperino', pick up some friends, cruise the streets of Thunder Bay, and happily bask in people's reactions.

When she was home, Jeannine enjoyed shopping, finding deals and buying gifts for her family and friends for no particular reason.

Jeannine often said her favourite thing was to put on a warm fire, grab hold of Bo Bear and Robin, and to snuggle on the couch with her two favourite boys.

Jeannine will be lovingly remembered and forever missed by her husband Robin; parents Tim and Kathy; brother Jon; grandmother Phyllis Ross; grandfather Art LeBlanc; Lawrence and Anne-Marie Armstrong; grandparents Annette Langlais and Melvin and Annie Armstrong. The families Ross and Armstrong, brothers and sisters, numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews, and countless friends whom Jeannine always thought of as part of her family.

*We will always remember our beautiful Jeannine.
The brightest of lights, the happiest of smiles, the purest of souls.
We love you forever, and our memories of you will always fill our hearts with joy.*

Funeral services for the late Jeannine Ross-Armstrong will be held on Tuesday, February 12, 2013 with family and friends gathering in St. Agnes Roman Catholic Church for the Funeral Mass at 10:30 AM celebrated by Father James Panikulam. Arrangements have been entrusted to the Everest Funeral Chapel, 299 Waverley St. at Algoma.

Should friends so desire in lieu of flowers, donations to Shelter House would be greatly appreciated by the family.
